

The violinist Cora Stiehler, born in Romania, began her studies with Prof. Stefan Gheorghiu and Prof. Florin Croitoru, in Bucharest, and continued with Prof. Jan Pospichal and Hubert Kroisamer in Vienna and Prof. Silvia Marcovici in Graz. She has participated in the Mahler Academy masterclasses and worked with Friedemann Eichhorn, Rainer Kussmaul and Christian Altenburger. Her orchestral experience includes the Gustav Mahler Youth Orchestra, the Bochumer Symphoniker and the Bad Reichenhaller

Philharmoniker, where she was the assistant concertmaster. Between 2014-2018 Cora Stiehler was member of the Mozarteum Orchestra Salzburg. She also performed with Musiciens du Louvre, Gärtnerplatztheater Munich and Camerata Salzburg.

Mrs. Stiehler is a dedicated chamber musician and performs with the AroC Quartett, the Senicky string quartet and the MozARTE Quintett Salzburg.

Since 2020 she is member of the Bruckner Orchestra Linz.